

HEALTH, SAFETY & WELFARE POLICY STATEMENT

CorrBoard Bio-Energy is committed to the continual improvement of occupational health and safety management and performance, ensuring the health, safety and welfare of all its employees, so far as is reasonably practicable. We will also seek to conduct our activities so as to prevent any injuries or harm to employees, contractors or clients.

All steps will be taken to ensure that our statutory duties are met at all times.

The Managing Director of CorrBoard Bio-Energy will take overall responsibility for the management of this policy. Implementation of the policy is the responsibility of all Managers and employees

Every employee must co-operate with CorrBoard Bio-Energy to enable all statutory duties to be complied with. The successful implementation of this policy requires total commitment from all employees. Everyone has a legal obligation to take reasonable care for their own health and safety, and for the safety of other people who may be affected by their acts or omissions.

Every employee will be given such information, instruction, supervision and training as is necessary to enable the safe performance of all relevant work activities.

Adequate facilities and arrangements will be maintained to enable employees and their representatives to consult on, and raise, health and safety issues. Competent people will be appointed to assist the Company in meeting our statutory duties including, where appropriate, specialists from outside organisations.

The policy will be regularly monitored to ensure that objectives set are achieved and will be readily available to all interested parties. It will be reviewed and, if necessary, revised in light of legislative or organisational changes.
